Fantasma

Sexteto Fantasma

is one of the most singular expressions of the contemporary tango scene in Buenos Aires. Since 2012, the ensemble has fused the traditional orquesta típica with jazz, swing, and regional rhythms, forging a distinct identity centered on the new latinamerican song from a tango-driven perspective.

Mejor Álbum de Tango

In 2025, the group was nominated for a Latin Grammy Award in the Best Tango Album category, a milestone that solidifies its international recognition and artistic standing.

El Sexteto Fantasma has graced the city's most iconic stages and collaborated with renowned argentinian artists such as Hernán “Cucuza” Castiello, Juan Villarreal, Juan Quintero, Julián Kartún, Paula Maffia, and Kevin Johansen.

Furthermore, the ensemble has cultivated a robust international trajectory, performing at festivals and milongas throughout France, Germany, Belgium, Italy, Denmark, and Sweden, establishing itself as a benchmark for contemporary tango.
